Screening a selection of films from the 'A Corto di Donne' Film Festival held in Naples Italy 2009 with the organisers and some of the filmmakers as our Guest Speakers

The 5th 'A Corto di Donne', Women's Short Film Festival, was held in Pozzuoli (Naples), Italy, in June 2009. 36 short films were selected for the competition from 720 submissions spanning 61 countries.

The Festival's aim is to provide a showcase for the talent and creativity of women filmmakers from around the world and an opportunity for industry professionals and the audiences to network.

September, by British director Esther May Campbell, was awarded best short film in the Fiction category. This will be included in Creative Network's screenings of some of the Festival's biggest highlights.

In addition to our usual evening event, screenings will start at 1.00pm and 3.30pm followed by Q & A sessions with the filmmakers and organisers.
